

Fine, as noted. See scans and description. Box-shipped; no bag. Washington, DC: National Geographic Society, 1995. The May, 1995 issue of National Geographic magazine, Volume 187, Number 5. Quarto, illustrated perfect-bound wraps, 152 pp. Fine, with very small, faint spot along bottom edge of front cover (scan), which is as-produced in this case. Otherwise, flawless, and does include the original laid-in and tipped-in subscription offers, pristine as well. See scans. Feature articles: Vickers Vimy; Nurse Sharks; NGS World War I Maps; The Cherokee; Poison Dart Frogs; Oman. See scan of contents page for more detail. The usual and expected expert journalism and gripping photojournalism of the famous NGS magazine, covering its main focuses: the earth, and us (and, occasionally, outer space). The also-engaging regular departments are: Behind the Scenes, Forum, Geographica, Flashback, On Television, Earth Almanac, and On Assignment. Ships in a new, sturdy, protective box - not a bag.
